DECLARATION OF DANIEL S. RENO

The Commissioner of Patents and Trademarks
Washington, D.C. 20231

Dear Sir:

DANIEL S. RENO, being hereby warned that willful false statements and like so made are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under Section 1001 of Title 18 of the United States Code and that such willful false statements may jeopardize the validity of the application or any patent issued thereon, declares that:

1. I am a named joint-inventor on the above-mentioned application.
2. I have read the Petition to Correct Inventorship for the above-mentioned application and Dr. Crowley's Declaration and verify that to the best of my knowledge the facts as stated therein are true.
3. Prior to Dr. Crowley bringing forth the facts set forth in Dr. Crowley's Declaration, I was not aware that Arthur J. Cooper had not been named as an inventor on the Declaration and Power of Attorney for the above-mentioned application.
4. I believe that the joint-inventors are as now set forth by the inventorship correction.
5. I have no knowledge of other information relevant to the request for correction of inventorship in the above-mentioned application.
